

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a member of the Natural Healer™ Society Member, the member has agreed:

- To always perform best practices in your chosen natural & holistic industry.
- To treat all those who seek out and engage your services with care, respect and professionalism at all times.
- To always do the very best you can for yourself and others.
- To come from a place of love in your thoughts & actions.
- To stay updated, and understand and abide by the regulatory laws for your profession, within your own state/country.
- To fully understand that this membership does not grant any rights for the member to practice medicine, diagnose or perform any service which they are not professionally qualified and legally allowed to do.

Member Acknowledgement

The member named on the Natural Healer™ Society Membership certificate consents to this code of conduct.
